Overview

Black Psychiatrists of America, Inc. is presenting an outstanding conference on the lovely island of St. Thomas, US Virgin Island. This conference is open to healthcare professionals and anyone interested in improving treatment, service delivery and recovery. The conference will include lectures followed by questions and answers, designed for an interactive exchange with the audience.

Conference Chairperson

Michelle O. Clark, MD., Los Angeles, CA
BPA Council of Elders,
Black Psychiatrists of America

Target Audience

Physicians, residents, medical students, allied health professionals and/or educational professionals involved in special education and mental health services, local and state government agency personnel and anyone interested in the treatment, health and well-being of African-Americans and the African Diaspora.

Objectives

At the completion of this conference, participants should be able to:

- Discuss the most common mental health conditions in youth and adult populations in the African Diaspora.
- Identify the most appropriate psycho-social and biological treatment modality for the population in the African Diaspora.
- Evaluate the most important areas of research requisite to improve treatment and clinical outcomes specific to people of African descent.
- Identify the educational, economical, cultural and organizational barriers that affect African Diaspora populations in the mental health systems and delivery of services for populations in the African Diaspora.
- Demonstrate knowledge of effective interventions for support to mental health consumers displaced due to disasters.
